KAMONTI DASHON CARTER, Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 262nd District Court
Harris County, Texas
Trial Court Cause Nos. 693,853 & 685,049

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Appellant pled guilty without an agreed recommendation as to punishment to the offenses of aggravated kidnapping and aggravated sexual assault of a child on June 21, 1995. The trial judge deferred adjudication of guilt and placed appellant on community supervision for ten years in each cause. The State filed a motion to adjudicate guilt. After a hearing, the trial court found appellant guilty and assessed punishment in each cause at confinement for fifteen years. Appellant filed a timely general notice of appeal from the judgment adjudicating guilt in each cause.

Appellant's appointed counsel filed a brief in which he concludes that the appeals are wholly frivolous and without merit. The brief meets the requirements of Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 87 S.Ct. 1396, 18 L.Ed.2d 493 (1967), by presenting a professional evaluation of the record demonstrating why there are no arguable grounds to be advanced. See High v. State, 573 S.W.2d 807 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978).

A copy of counsel's brief was delivered to appellant. Appellant was advised of the right to examine the appellate record and file a pro se response. As of this date, no pro se response has been filed.

We have carefully reviewed the record and counsel's brief and agree that the appeals are wholly frivolous and without merit. Further, we find no reversible error in the record. A discussion of the brief would add nothing to the jurisprudence of the state.

Accordingly, the judgment of the trial court is affirmed.
