In The Fourteenth Court of Appeals

NO. 14-01-00798-CR

BOBBY WAYNE STANTON, Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 179th District Court
Harris County, Texas
Trial Court Cause No. 864,437

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Appellant entered a plea of no contest to the offense of aggravated assault. On May 1, 2001, the trial court sentenced appellant to confinement for thirty-five years in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice and a $10,000.00 fine. Appellant filed a notice of appeal.

Appellant's appointed counsel filed a brief in which he concludes that the appeal is wholly frivolous and without merit. The brief meets the requirements of Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 87 S.Ct. 1396, 18 L.Ed.2d 493 (1967), by presenting a professional evaluation of the record demonstrating why there are no arguable grounds to be advanced. See High v. State, 573 S.W.2d 807 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978).

A copy of counsel's brief was delivered to appellant. Appellant was advised of the right to examine the appellate record and file a pro se response. Appellant was given a record view pursuant to order of this Court. On November 8, 2001, and January 17, 2002, this Court granted appellant extensions of time to file his pro se response. When we granted the second extension to February 19, 2002, we noted that no further extensions would be granted absent exceptional circumstances. As of this date, no further request for extension of time and no pro se response has been filed.

We have carefully reviewed the record and counsel's brief and agree that the appeal is wholly frivolous and without merit. Further, we find no reversible error in the record. A discussion of the brief would add nothing to the jurisprudence of the state.

Accordingly, the judgment of the trial court is affirmed.
