Fourteenth Court of Appeals

NO. 14-98-01142-CR

LINDA LOY ESCAMILLA, Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 351st District Court
Harris County, Texas
Trial Court Cause No. 778, 323

O P I N I O N

Linda Loy Escamilla, appellant, entered a guilty plea to the offense of assault on a public servant and was given four years deferred adjudication probation. Five months later, the State filed an amended motion to revoke probation alleging appellant committed various violations of her probation. Appellant waived her rights to a hearing on the motion to revoke probation, entered a plea of “true” to the allegations in the motion and accepted the state’s plea bargain offer of six year confinement in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice–Institutional Division.

Appellant's appointed counsel filed a brief where he concludes an appeal would be wholly frivolous and without merit. The brief meets the requirements of Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 87 S. Ct. 1396 (1967), presenting a professional evaluation of the record demonstrating why there are no arguable grounds to be advanced. See High v. State, 573 S.W.2d 807 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978).

A copy of counsel's brief was delivered to appellant. Additionally, this Court entered an order on October 21, 1999 directing the trial court to afford appellant the opportunity to view the trial record; that the clerk of that court furnish the record to appellant on or before November 5, 1999, that the clerk of that court certify to this Court the date on which delivery of the record to appellant is made; and that appellant file her pro se brief with this Court within thirty days of that date. The District Clerk certified appellant received the trial record on November 5, 1999. Appellant has not filed any response.

We agree the appeal is wholly frivolous and without merit. Further, we find no reversible error in the record.

Accordingly, the judgment of the trial court is affirmed.
