NAKISHA SHANETTE STEPNEY, Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 268th District Court
Fort Bend County, Texas
Trial Court Cause No. 29,330 and 29,330HC1

OPINION

Nakisha Shanette Stepney (Appellant) was indicted for the felony offense of assault of a peace officer. Appellant pleaded guilty and was sentenced by the trial court to confinement in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice for a term of ten years, which was suspended and probated for a term of five years. Her probation was later revoked and her original sentence imposed. She later filed an application for writ of habeas corpus, which was denied. Appellant gave timely notice of appeal relative to the revocation of her probation and the denial of her application for writ of habeas corpus.

Appellant's appointed appellate counsel filed a brief in which he concludes that the appeal is wholly frivolous and without merit. The brief meets the requirements of Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 87 S.Ct. 1396, 18 L.Ed.2d 493 (1967), by presenting a professional evaluation of the record demonstrating why there are no arguable grounds to be advanced. See High v. State, 573 S.W.2d 807, 809 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978).

A copy of counsel's brief was delivered to Appellant. Appellant was advised of the right to examine the appellate record and to file a pro se brief. As of this date, no pro se brief has been filed and the time permitted to file such a brief has expired.

We agree the appeal is wholly frivolous and without merit. Further, we find no reversible error in the record. A discussion of the brief would add nothing to the jurisprudence of the State.

Accordingly, the judgment of the trial court is affirmed.
