PRESIDING JUROR

Thereupon, the Defendant, EDWARD GEORGE MCGREGOR, having been convicted by a jury of Capital Murder, and in this instance the State having not elected to seek the death penalty, had his sentence pronounced by the Court at Life Imprisonment in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice.

It is THEREFORE CONSIDERED AND ADJUDGED by the Court that the Defendant named above is guilty of the offense named above as found by the jury, and that he be punished as found by the Court, that is by confinement in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Institutional Division for a period of LIFE and that the State of Texas do have and recover of the said Defendant all cost in this prosecution, for which execution may issue.

And thereupon the said Defendant was asked by the Court whether he had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced against him, and he answered nothing in bar thereof. Whereupon the Court proceeded, in the presence of said Defendant, to pronounce sentence against him as follows, to wit: "It is the order of the Court that the Defendant, named above who has been adjudged to be guilty of the offense indicated above, a felony, and whose punishment has been assessed at confinement in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Institutional Division for the period indicated above, be delivered by the Sheriff of Fort Bend County, Texas, or other person legally authorized to receive such convicts, and said Defendant shall be confined in said Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Institutional Division for the period indicated above, in accordance with the provision of the law governing the Texas Department of Criminal Justice."

The said Defendant was remanded to jail until said Sheriff can obey the directions of this sentence.

Signed and entered this 13th day of October 2010.
