

Annual Supplemental Compensation

Courts of Appeals Justices

Chapter 31 of the Texas Government Code authorizes the counties in each Court of Appeals district to pay each justice of the Court of Appeals for that district a sum not to exceed $15,000 per year for judicial and administrative services rendered. This compensation is in addition to the salary paid by the State. Section 659.012, Government Code, limits the total salary for a justice of a Court of Appeals to a combined sum from state and county sources of $1,000 less than the state salary paid to a justice of the Supreme Court. This same provision limits the chief justices of the Courts of Appeals to receive a combined salary of $500 less than the state salary paid to justices of the Supreme Court. As of September 1, 2002, the annual state salary paid to a justice of the Supreme Court was $113,000.

District Court Judges

Various sections of Chapter 32, Government Code, authorize the state salaries of some district court judges to be supplemented from county funds. Section 659.012, Government Code, limits, unless otherwise provided by law, the total annual salary for a district judge to a combined sum from state and county sources of $2,000 less than the state salary provided for a justice of the Supreme Court.

The following supplemental compensation information was obtained from affidavits on file with the State Comptroller of Public Accounts.
