

The Texas Commission on Judicial Selection (TCJS) was created in 2019 by the 86th Texas Legislature to study and review the method by which statutory county court judges, including probate court judges; district judges; and appellate justices and judges are selected for office in Texas.

Link to Register

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/DallasTestimonyRegistration> →

ZOOM Meeting Texas Commission on JUDICIAL SELECTION

6 October 2020
2:00 PM - 4:00 PM

David Beck
Chair

The Texas Commission on Judicial Selection wants to hear from you! The Commission is hosting a public hearing via Zoom focused on the Dallas Area on Tuesday, October 6th from 2 p.m. – 4 p.m. The Commission will be taking public testimony on how Texans feel about the method in which judges are selected in our state. To testify and let your opinions be heard, please register at the link provided.

Registration will close at 5:00 PM CST, Monday, October 5th.

Members

Legislative Members

Hon. Brian Birdwell, Senator
Hon. Juan “Chuy” Hinojosa, Senator
Hon. Joan Huffman, Senator
Hon. Robert Nichols, Senator

Hon. Todd Hunter, Representative
Hon. Brooks Landgraf, Representative
Hon. Ina Minjarez, Representative
Hon. Carl Sherman, Representative

Citizen Members

Mr. Charles “Chip” Babcock, IV, Attorney
Hon. Martha Hill Jamison, (Ret.)
Hon. Wallace Jefferson, (Ret.)
Ms. Lynne Liberato, Attorney
Mr. David Oliveira, Attorney
Hon. Thomas Phillips, (Ret.)

2020
FAIR AND EFFECTIVE SELECTION