Will begin holding open courts in July, one each week. Defendants will be lined up 6' apart in 2 separate lines, extending in 2 different directions to ensure proper distancing. One line will be to see the judge and one to make payments at the clerks' window. Monitors will be at the door to allow no more than 6 people at a time in the lobby, separating into groups of 3 each to go through security and enter the courtroom or to proceed to the court payment window. Individuals who are over age 65 and individuals with serious underlying health conditions, such as high blood pressure, chronic lung disease, diabetes, obesity, asthma, and those whose immune systems are compromised such as by chemotherapy for cancer or other conditions requiring such therapy are considered to be vulnerable populations.
2. Each judge will include information on orders setting hearings, dockets notices, and in other communications notifying individuals who are in vulnerable populations of the ability to contact the court to identify themselves as a vulnerable individual and receive accommodations. A notice with this information will be posted on the courts' websites and in conspicuous locations around the court building (a copy of which is attached).
3. Vulnerable populations who are scheduled for court will be accommodated by sending notice of their options by mail and, if they wish to appear in person, all safety precautions will be observed and they will be priority status to go before the judge.

Social Distancing

1. All persons not from the same household who are permitted in the court building will be required to maintain adequate social distancing of at least 6 feet.

I have conferred with all judges utilizing the Universal City Municipal Court courtroom in the City Hall building regarding this Operating Plan. In developing the plan, I consulted with the local health authority and mayor, documentation of which is attached to this plan. I will ensure that the judges of courts with courtrooms in the court building covered by this Operating Plan conduct proceedings consistent with the plan.
