Fourth Court of Appeals to Hear Oral Argument

The Fourth Court of Appeals will hear oral arguments in one appeal on Thursday, September 16, 2021, beginning at 2:00 p.m., before the following panel of justices: Chief Justice Rebeca C. Martinez, Justice Patricia O. Alvarez, and Justice Beth Watkins.

The following appeal will be presented:

Leticia R. Benavides v. Linda Cristina B. Alexander, as Permanent Guardian of the Person of Carlos Y. Benavides, Jr.; Carlos Y. Benavides, III; Rancho Viejo Cattle Company, Ltd.; Benavides Management, LLC; and Linda Cristina Alexander and Guillermo Benavides, as Managers of Benavides Management, LLC – This appeal concerns the parties' dispute over ownership of real and personal property. Appellant/cross-appellee challenges the trial court's declarations regarding ownership and possession of funds deposited in certain bank accounts. Appellees/cross-appellants challenge an award of real property to appellant/cross-appellee, a declaration regarding the capacity of a ward under guardianship, and a take-nothing judgment on their tort claims against appellant/cross-appellee.

In accordance with the Texas Supreme Court's emergency orders in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the oral argument will be held through the Fourth Court of Appeals' Zoom license.
