Supreme Court of Texas

Misc. Docket No. 26-9055

In the Matter of Megan Hines

1. The Court has received Mehan Hines's motion for resignation in lieu of discipline, the Chief Disciplinary Counsel's response, and Hines's waiver of the ten-day period for withdrawing her motion.

2. The Court finds that the requirements of Part X, Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure, are met and that the allegations of Professional Misconduct in the response are conclusively established.

4. Effective immediately, Megan Hines is prohibited from practicing law in this State.

5. Hines must:
   - immediately surrender her State Bar card and law license to the Clerk of this Court or file an affidavit stating why she cannot;
   - immediately notify each of her current clients and opposing counsel of her resignation in writing;
   - immediately return to current and former clients all property, including papers and files, and unearned compensation in her possession;
   - immediately notify each court in which she has any matter pending of the terms of this order; the style and case number of pending matters; and the names, addresses, and phone numbers of his clients in those cases; and
